Meet CJ!

CJ is a very enthusiastic boy! He wants an active guardian who wants a constant BFF as CJ thrives when people are always around. CJ is a very fast learner, and loves to give a "high paw!" He would make the perfect companion for someone who loves the outdoors, as CJ has shown he has very high interest in water! Sadly he has lived outdoors most of his life, so no apartments or condos for this boy. CJ will need a guardian who is willing to carry on his obedience training. Children over the age of 12 would be ideal, as CJ is very active and jumpy at this time.

Meet Wookiee!

Wookiee is a sweet little girl with a big heart. She has lived in a home previously with dogs, cats, and children. Wookiee would most likely fit into any home that is looking to adopt a new companion. Like most adopted animals coming into a new home, she will need time to adjust and comfort from stress.

Wookiee may have some separation anxiety while settling into a new routine and would do best if she wasn't left alone for too long.

Meet Bunny!

Bunny is a big old boy who is a very strong, powerful and an excitable guy. His dream home would be adult only with a confident guardian who will continue his positive training. Bunny is nervous of men and needs to be introduced really slowly, using yummy treats. His ideal environment would be with humans who live in a quieter environment (no downtown living, apartments/condos/townhouses). When he gets to know you, he can be very excitable and forget his manners. It is best to reward him for calm behaviour. Bunny does like female dogs but plays rough so needs a playmate who can also be big and strong with a similar play style. Bunny LOVES soccer balls and playing with his toys. He is super snuggly and loves affection. He can be anxious being left alone but can be alone up to 3-4 hours but must be kenneled as he can be destructive. If you have the experience and the environment for him to flourish let us know!

Meet Cocoa!

This sweet girl came to us underweight and very fearful. We knew with a little TLC she would blossom into a magnificent dog and boy has she ever. She walks amazing on the leash and is extremely intelligent. She has been able to learn "spin", "lie down" and "shake a paw" in 1 hour! This girl can be a bit shy at first but once she warms up to you she is amazing and so loyal. Cocoa would thrive in a home as the only animal with no small children. Please contact the Abbotsford SPCA if you are interested in her!

Meet Ponyo!

This cute little girl was found alone on the beach, with no collar, or permanent ID so we were unable to find her family. Ponyo is just learning how to walk on a leash, and at this point is still not comfortable going to the bathroom while on lead. She can be uncomfortable with a lot of handling and would benefit with lots of positive reinforcement and desensitization to touch. An adult only home, would be best for this girl, one with a calm and consistent routine. Ponyo is showing some reactivity to strangers and will need some support to show that strangers aren't scary! We're not sure how Ponyo is with other dogs so her new family would need to be prepared to maybe do some work with reactivity. Ponyo would likely excel in nose work classes, as she is keen to seek out treats or toys. She is very playful, and is sure to fill her new home with a lot of joy and laughter.

Meet Kody!

Kody needed surgery for a torn ACL, and is now looking for his new forever home! He needs patient and understanding owners who are willing to follow very strict post-op bed rest and exercise regimes so Kody can live a normal life in the future. Kody is an energetic dog, so he will need a home that can provide lots of enrichment and keep him mentally stimulated while he recovers. Kody knows all his basic commands, is house trained, walks well on a leash, and loves to play fetch. However, because Kody has a history of resource guarding, it would be best if he was adopted to a home without any small children. Once he is fully recovered, Kody would love someone who can take him outside daily for adventures!

Shep *bonded to Tank

I am 4 Years, 5 Months Old

Domestic Longhair, Mixed Breed,

Tank and his buddy Shep are from Penticton and came from a large hoarding situation where they were living in very poor conditions. Tank is looking for a home with Shep who is a bit more shy than he is. Both boys will need time to settle into their quiet, adult home with a patient owner. They likely will be ok with a nice dog as they met some at their catio. They need to be indoor only
